HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.NO. 22153 OF 2006

DATED: 26.10.2006

Between:

Pasupuleti Ramanaiah

… Petitioner

and

The Commissioner of Endowments and others

… Respondents

HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.NO.22153 OF 2006

ORAL ORDER:

Though a number of grounds are raised in the writ petition to challenge the order of the 2nd respondent bearing reference D.Dis.No.A3/9158/2006 dated 10.10.2006, at the admission hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner states that as the petitioner has already preferred a revision to the 1st respondent against the impugned order on 23.10.2006, the 1st respondent may be directed to expeditiously dispose of the revision or the application for the interim relief with a caveat that the auction now proposed to be conducted on 27.10.2006, pursuant to the 4th respondent's notification dated 15.10.2006 shall be subject to the result of the revision pending before the 1st respondent.

In view of the submission, the writ petition is disposed of directing the 1st respondent to expeditiously and in any event within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, dispose of the revision preferred by the petitioner on 23.10.2006 or at least his application for interim relief. The result of the auction scheduled on 27.10.2006 of lands in Sy.Nos. 70 and 72A, belonging to the 4th respondent-Devasthanam proposed to be held, pursuant to the 4th respondent's notification dated 15.10.2006 shall be subject to the result of the decision of the 1st respondent in the revision.

Nothing in this order shall be construed as an expression by this court on the merits of the petitioner's contentions in this writ petition or on the merits of his claims urged in the revision preferred before the 1st respondent and the 1st respondent shall dispose of the revision on its own merits and in accordance with law.

The writ petition is disposed of at the stage of admission after hearing the learned Government Pleader for Endowments. No costs.
